Joseph Fielding Smith, "An Insider's View of Mormon Origins" (by Grant H. Palmer), These attempts to defend the Prophet Joseph Smith against accusations of making up the story of the Nauvoo "Mormon" Joe Smith [Joe Fielding Smith], who claimed to be the only resurrected soul in the Kingdom of God, would send him to prison for nearly twenty-six years. Nov 16, 2021 The four most common attempts at presenting Joseph Fielding Smith's version of the story of the resurrection in a manner that highlights the errors, omissions, and misrepresentations are as follows: •In this apologetic genre of writing Joseph Fielding Smith is presented as a willing accomplice in the deception of the Prophet Joseph Smith. •Joseph Fielding Smith is presented as an important, well-informed, and effective defender of the Prophet Joseph Smith's version of the resurrection story. •Joseph Fielding Smith is presented as a scholar in the sciences who finds the resurrection story believable despite the flaws of the witnesses. •Joseph Fielding Smith is presented as a source who provides the definitive statement on the merits of the resurrection story. Apr 27, 2019 Joseph Fielding Smith (1901–1985) is often presented as an articulate defender of the resurrection story. He claims to be an independent, well-informed scientist and offers the definitive word on the resurrection. In fact, Joseph Fielding Smith was the primary proselytizer for polygamy and the leading advocate of the non-Mormon viewpoint on the origin of the Book of Mormon. How have Mormons responded? Do Mormons have an informal understanding of Joseph Fielding Smith and his relationship with the Church? Joseph Fielding Smith died in 1985. How are Joseph Fielding Smith's views concerning the role of the resurrection in Mormon theology represented within the Church?
