RSC seeks to be a safe and secure trading platform for investment in cryptocurrencies. Therefore, all funds are stored in cold wallets. RSC is a blockchain project for a decentralized alternative exchange and digital asset platform. With its unique business model, this token is expected to be in great demand. It is a low-cost transaction that can be used in hundreds of stores within Asia. Even when the going gets tough, RSC will be working to help China make the most of it. Partners for the project Fumica is a global company that deals with all kinds of jewelry, while Zhongko is a e-commerce company with a team of 60 people. Both team members are experienced and have worked in the related industries for quite some time now. Working as a team, the project is inspired by the aspirations of the people of the UK who have been hurt by widespread corruption, fraud and mismanagement within the inner workings of the international banking system. RSC has also been advised by a hedge fund called TecO Capital. This hedge fund has also been working together with the company that helps businesses in providing cryptocurrency exchange platforms. The fund uses the experience of these two companies in the market in order to help RSC succeed in the crypto-industry. Token sale
