is a powerful app designed to help you keep track of your invoices. After that click "Next". On this page, you will see the Documents Include site, which also supports the DataInt format. Click the "Use this format" button. Many companies keep sales records by email, so your office workers can receive invoices in their mail that contain all the information they need to record. So if you want your employees to use their own format for recording accounting transactions, just add it on the Docs Includes page. Chapter 4 Working with DocumentInt By firmly holding the Dictionary of Abbreviations to you, you go to the main page. A link to this site next to the main menu should be an insurmountable barrier for you when trying to implement a new accounting system on it. Before you start experimenting with this system, you need to understand the following: Â· General information In this section, you will find general information about the Abbreviations Dictionary and basic commands that will allow you and your team to communicate without any restrictions. Under "What is DocInt?" you will find some information about this electronic application and its possibilities. Do not immediately enter all these commands - you can easily miss something important. Adding individual words If you want to add a specific word, place the cursor in its center. To the right of the cursor, a window will appear in which you can select a category: In Lingvo Abbreviations Dictionaries, words can be sorted to make it easier to find the right word. The purpose of the Purpose section is to provide you with information about future developments in the use of Lingvo dictionaries and emerging issues. There can be both specific messages and summary information. Now go to the "Editor" section. To write on a computer, you, like anyone else, need a computer with Microsoft Word installed.Pasting text in this editor's window is one of several ways you may need to not only enter text into typed text, but also write on your computer keyboard. Image in search bar In this section, you can view all the words and expressions that you type in the search box. Thus, you can instantly find texts that you have not worked with yet. If, say, you want to write some of your own text
